Roadmap to Special

About Special Kids would like to welcome our newest Board member, Cameal Wright, MD., MBA.

Dr. Wright is the Indiana Market Medical Director of Caresource, accountable for clinical quality and initiatives. She combines clinical and business acumen to drive evidence-based corporate policy, high quality healthcare delivery and effective population health initiatives. Dr. Wright received her undergraduate and medical degrees from the University of Michigan and earned her Master of Business Administration from Indiana University.

Dr. Wright has a life-long passion for maternal and child health. She practiced Obstetrics and Gynecology in Indiana for 15 years and has held multiple leadership positions, including chair of the department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and president of the medical staff. Dr. Wright currently serves on multiple boards and committees both at the state and national level to advocate for women and children. She is committed to ensuring the health and well-being of all women and children.

Subminimum Wage Online Dialog

The Office of Disability Employment Policy wants to hear from you! They are hosting an online dialog to collect comments from the public about the subminimum wage. Under Section 14(c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act, some employers can legally pay people with disabilities less than the federal minimum wage.

The goal of the online dialog is to gather the perspective of people with disabilities, family members, disability advocates, and employers. Comments will be used to give the Office of Disability Employment Policy an overview of the impact of Section 14(c) at the state and national level.

Share your thoughts by June 14.
