Beyond the School Bell: Post Secondary Education Options

Rights and Protections

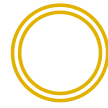

- IDEA and Article 7 do NOT apply
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act of 1973 DO apply
 - About ACCESS, not services, supports, and modifications
 - Lay the groundwork for accommodations
 - Must work with the school's Office of Disabled Student Services
 - Each school will have their own paperwork, rules, and regulations

Options While Still in High School

- Can stay in school until the student turns 22
 - Allows the student to draw out classes to take advantage of the opportunities, services, and supports available
- Dual Credit Classes
 - Different from AP courses
- Vocational Schools
 - Part of high school
 - Can explore careers and train for work while getting supports
 - Sometimes career ready; sometimes need additional training
- Project Search, IIDC

Trade Schools

- More hands on learning
- Classes directly related to subject matter
- Often get professional certifications or lead to licensure
- Department of Workforce Development (Work One) and Vocational Rehabilitation Services may be able to connect individuals and help them get accommodations
- Talk to school counselors for options

Programs through Dept. of Workforce Development
